The Next Big Thing is a proudly DIY festival, curated by musicians for musicians.

Our mission is to platform the incredible breadth of talent this island has to offer. Some highlights this year include Annie and the Witness, yes cheff!, Vatican Jail, and Teejuhu, and more to be announced.

This year's conference brings together senior designers, creative directors, and design leaders at every level.

The ultimate showcase for people who are building, extending, improving or simply decorating their home. Visitors are presented an abundance of ideas, inspiration and advice via 1-2-1 Clinics, Theatre talks and hundreds of Irish based exhibitors.
